Todd,

As I have tried to explain to you on at least two separate occasions, the state has granted me exactly eight hours of investigation time for your case. I am aware that you tried to contact me Friday and I have not contacted you back as I am hoping to wait to contact you when I have some more news on your case. If I respond every time you email or call me the hours the state allotted for this investigation will be spent talking to you and not working on your case directly. I prefer to spend the time I have been given working to get you results.

Please understand that I will contact you when I have information to give you,
Thank you,

Samantha Lowery

so my emails probably count as certified deliveries, as they are logged as both being delivered digitally and not bounced by Gmail.

I noticed neither of you.. are investigating my abuse or doing any work. I checked the server log on my website for example, and no downloads of the witness confirming the technologies existence or her belief I had been abuse has occurred. you both got confirmed delivery of the email with the links to these files Wednesday night (1/8/2014), and it is now Saturday morning 1/11/2014.

neither of you made attempts to call me back about this. like you did in the past. and, Andrew Ross actually hung up and went silent on my first phone call to him when I asked him to investigate this, which is a form of client abuse.

I logged the call when I called Sam on Friday 1/10 morning about it. she did not return the calls..

So, do I sense the two of you are denying me effective counsel? Or committing crimes against me? Planning to fuck up the case and never do any work or something?

I am sending a transcript of this to a judge in Portland. And I am planning to sue you both. Print a copy of this and send it to the judge in your withdrawal. If the judge denies it, then that's cost him his job. We're not playing games like this.
